

25 Years of Religions in the Public Sphere: Retrospective and Prospective Reflections

Introduction by Professor Richard Madsen (UCSD)

José Casanova (Georgetown University)

José Casanova is Professor of Sociology, Theology and Senior Fellow at the Berkley Center for Religion, Peace, and World Affairs at Georgetown University, where he heads the Program on Religion, Globalization and the Secular. From 1987 to 2007 he served as Professor of Sociology at the New School for Social Research. His best-known work, Public Religions in the Modern World (Chicago, 1994), has been translated to various languages, including Japanese, Arabic, and Turkish. He is coeditor of The Jesuits and Globalization (Georgetown UP, 2016) and Islam, Gender and Democracy (Oxford, 2017), and author of Global Religious and Secular Dynamics: The Modern System of Classification (Brill, 2019). He is the recipient of the 2012 Salzburger Hochschulwochen Theologischer Preis.

Co-sponsors: Department of Sociology, Department of Anthropology, Third World Studies

Time: 11:00am-1:00pm
Date: Tuesday, November 26
Location: UC San Diego,
Atkinson Hall, 9500 Gilman Dr.
La Jolla, CA

