

Ethics, Religion, and Climate Change:

Relating Local Moral Frameworks to Global Science & Religion

June 2nd, 2017
10:00am - 3:30pm
Social Science Building 107

Schedule

Morning Session: 10:00am - 11:00am

Moderator: Aftab Jassal (Program for the Study of Religion)

Speakers: Hildegard Diemberger and David Sneath (Cambridge University)
“Environmental Cosmopolitics in the Himalaya and Inner Asia”

Lunch: 11:30am - 12:30pm

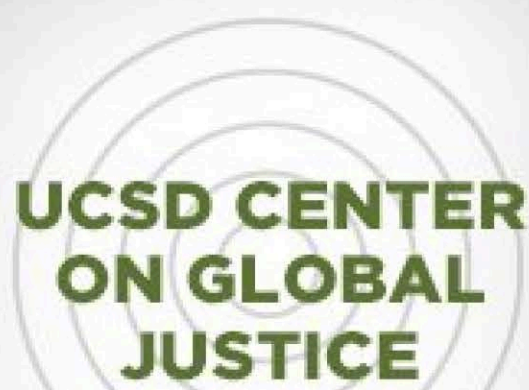

Afternoon Session: 12:30pm - 3:00pm

Moderator: Richard Madsen (Distinguished Professor, Dept. of Sociology)

Speakers: Veerabhadran Ramanathan (Distinguished Professor, Scripps Institute of Oceanography)
“Remarks: Science, Religion, Policy and Climate Change”

General Discussion: Exploring the relationships of ethics, religion, and science in the context of climate change.

Summary by Charles Kennel (Scripps Institute of Oceanography)

South Asia Initiative and the Indira Foundation

UC San Diego

SOCIAL SCIENCES

GLOBAL
HEALTHPROGRAM

UC San Diego

SOCIAL SCIENCES
Anthropology